

International Executive Council (IEC)

DCI's International Executive Council (IEC) is the movement's governing authority in the interim between General Assemblies.

Members of the International Executive Council are elected for a period of 4 years during DCI's International General Assembly meeting.

The IEC is composed of 8 people, each from a different country and representing the 4 regions in which DCI works.

Current members, elected during DCI's most recent International General Assembly in March 2017, you can find the press release here, and are as follows:
